

Jon Fredrikson, Editor

The Gomberg-Fredrikson Report is a monthly publication covering California winery and imported wine shipments with commentary about current industry developments. Originally created in 1948 by industry pioneer Louis R. Gomberg, the G-F Report provides insightful perspective on market conditions, California wine brand performance and key trends affecting the U.S. wine business.

Strategic Insights to Help You Manage Your Grape & Wine Business

- Commentary and analysis on U.S. wine market trends and developments.
- Shipments of over 140 leading California wineries, ranked by size.
- Imported wine case shipments and values by category for all major countries.
- California table wine shipments by major varietal type.
- Summary of total U.S. shipments from California, imports and other states.
- California table wine shipments and revenues by price segment.
- Sparkling wine shipments by source and production method.
- Cased and bulk exports of California wine for all leading producers.
